

FADE IN:

EXT. DRIVEWAY - EVENING

There's a high pitch ringing.

A young woman (late 20s), is running out of the house towards her car. This is AVA. Her face is red and swollen. As she hurries to her car, her husband, DOMINIC (mid 30s) is not far behind. He's screaming at her. His words are muffled as Ava makes her way to the car.

He suddenly throws a glass at her. Ava ducks just in time. It breaks, glass shattering all over the driveway.

Ava looks at him for a moment, terrified, but deviant. Then she hurries into the car and drives off, while Dominic continues to scream at her.

INT. CAR, ROAD - NIGHT

Ava is driving around aimlessly. She looks rattled, scared, and is holding back tears.

EXT. PARKING LOT - NIGHT

Ava pulls into a big parking lot. She stops the car, but her hands stay on the wheel, gripping it tightly as she takes deep, shaky breaths.

She suddenly slams her hands against the wheel and lets out a scream. Her phone then starts ringing. She turns off the engine and sees that it's Dominic calling.